#1

To the Common Council:

Your committee on licenses and trade regulations beg leave to report that they have had under consideration the proposed ordinance repealing the ordinance licensing and regulating saloons.

Your committee is of the opinion that whatever merit there may be in requiring a substantial municipal license fee from liquor dealers in ordinarily prosperous years, the conditions at present are ~~not~~ such that the exaction ought not to be made this year.

Owing to the ^{depression} depreciation in the iron and transportation business, and the fact that large numbers of men of the city are working on short time and many are out of employment entirely, extremely dull business conditions exist in this city, and particularly in the liquor trade, in which there has been a closer observance of law the present year. We believe that but few dealers are making any money, that most of them are ~~hardly~~ making expenses and that ^{some} ~~many~~ are running behind.

Under such conditions, the requirement of the extra license fee of $250 of each liquor dealer, in addition to the $500 tax already paid, is, in our opinion, an unjust imposition on a majority of such dealers in this city, and would be a burden which conditions do not warrant the city in placing on the trade at this time.

We therefor recommend that the repealing ordinance be adopted.

P. J. Donovan
John Downey
N. L. Sigel
Committee.
