THE COMMISSIONERS OF LINCOLN PARK.
North Clark & Center Sts.
Chicago.

September 30th, 1918.

Mr. F. J. Jennison,
Cashier.
Marquette Natl. Bank
Marquette, Mich.

Dear Sir:-

A few days ago I shipped you by express one gallon of disinfectant for the ticks on the young swans. I would use this one part disinfectant to 50 parts water and spray under the feathers thoroughly. Rub it in so the disinfectant will get to the skin.

Trusting this will prove satisfactory, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

C. B. DeVry,

Director Lincoln Park Zoo.

MARQUETTE NATIONAL BANK
MARQUETTE, MICH.

CASHIER

Oct. 2, 1918.

Mr. C. B. DeVry, Director,
Lincoln Park Zoo,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter of Monday last and yesterday the gallon of disinfectant put in an appearance.

At the next meeting of our City Commission, which will be held Monday of next week, due recognition of your courteous gift will be made. I have already seen several of the Commissioners and they express surprise and gratification at the interest you have shown. Personally, I want to thank you, not only for the disinfectant, but for the delightful interview we had on the occasion of my recent visit. I shall never forget the intelligence exhibited by your chimpanzee. I have described it I don't know how many times since my return and I am afraid that you will have to exhibit her to some of my friends as they visit the Zoo.

I shall take occasion from time to time to let you know how we get along with our young brood of swans. Our entire population is interested in them and any accident to them will be almost in the nature of a public calamity. I hope that you may happen to drop into our little city at some future time. If you do so, and do not hunt the writer up, I will come down there and make you think that a gorilla is after you instead of a harmless little lady chimpanzee.

Yours very truly

J. J. Smith

Yeas- Commissioners Pearce, Sherman, Sink and Werner.
