Harden Quits As NMU Prexy

Blast Shatters Negro's Home

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — Troy B. Brown of 2348 Heron, the Negro student who was blasted out of the second-story window of his home last night. No injuries were sustained. The blast is the second in two days in Cambridge.

The blast, said to be made with a dynamite charge, occurred about 8 p.m. last night at 2348 Heron, the Brown's home. The blast was heard by several neighbors who said they heard a loud explosion and saw a flash through the window.

Mr. Brown was reportedly in the house at the time of the blast. He was not injured in the explosion.

The blast is the second in two days in Cambridge. The first explosion occurred at 2230 Heron last night, also causing no injuries.

The blast comes as Cambridge is preparing to celebrate Negro History Week. The city is expected to have a large Negro population this weekend.

The blast was not related to any political incident.

Steel Firms Stunned By Union's Demands

PITTSBURGH, PA. — The steel industry was shocked today when it was announced that J. A. and M. E. Baldwin, owners of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, had received a letter from the United Steelworkers of America, demanding a 50% raise in wages.

The letter, signed by J. A. Baldwin, stated that the steelworkers were prepared to take strike action if their demands were not met.

The Baldwin Locomotive Works is one of the largest employers in the city, and the letter is expected to have a major impact on the local economy.

The letter was met with a strong reaction from the steel industry, with many expressing concern about the potential impact on the economy.

Weather:
The Weather

The weather was sunny and mild today, with temperatures in the low 70s. The wind was light, from the south at 5-10 mph.

The temperatures were expected to remain in the low 70s throughout the day, with a high of 75 degrees expected.

The National Weather Service expects mostly clear skies throughout the day, with a chance of scattered showers and thunderstorms later in the day.

The forecast calls for mostly clear skies and sunny conditions throughout the entire week, with temperatures in the low to mid 70s.