Four GI's Killed, Six Wounded In VIet Nam Clash

HO CHI MINH Talks On Viet Nam Possible

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (API) — Four U.S. Army men were killed and six were wounded in an attack on a Viet Cong stronghold near the town of Saigon last night. The attack was launched by Viet Cong guerrillas in the early hours of the morning.

The attack took place near the town of Sai Gon and involved about 100 guerrillas. The attack lasted for several hours and ended with the killing of four U.S. soldiers and the wounding of six others.

Cautious Optimism On Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP) — John F. Kennedy administration officials were cautious today in their assessment of the crisis in South Viet Nam, where thousands of U.S. peacekeeping forces were being pulled out.

Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor said that the situation in South Viet Nam was improving, but that it was still too early to declare victory. "We are making progress, but it is a slow and difficult process," he said.

2 Generals Badly Hurt In Jumps

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — Two U.S. Generals were severely injured in a parachute jump yesterday in Germany.

The Generals were part of a group of U.S. military officers who were involved in a training exercise.

HARDEN WITHDRAWS RESIGNATION: NMU Prexy To Stay On Job

Dr. Edward L. Harden, president of Northern Michigan University, announced today that he would resign as president of the university effective immediately.

Dr. Harden said that he had decided to resign because of the difficulty of running a university during a time of great change.

He said that he would resign immediately and that he would not seek re-election as president.

LBJ Withholding Judgment On Alabama Boycott Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson said today that he would withhold judgment on an appeal by the Alabama Negroes to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The President said that he had not made up his mind on the issue and that he would not make a decision until he had had a chance to review the case.

Rights March Expected In Camden, Ala.

CAMDEN, Ala. (AP) — A right-wing march is expected to take place in Camden today, but it is not clear whether the march will go ahead.

Mayor Reg Altman, who has been under fire for his handling of the civil rights situation in the city, said that he would not allow the march to take place.

Barry, Nixon Disagree On Voting Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon and Vice President Spiro Agnew have been at odds over the issue of voting rights.

Nixon has proposed a bill to extend voting rights to all citizens, while Agnew has opposed the bill and has said that it is unnecessary.

Model Changes

The mining industry has been undergoing a major transformation, with changes in technology and regulations.

The mining companies are investing in new technologies, such as automation and robotics, to increase efficiency and reduce costs.

The companies are also facing new regulations, such as those related to environmental protection, which are driving them to make changes in their operations.