

LUCY MINE - 1920.

The operations in the Jackson Pit last season extended onto the Lucy property. During the coming year, work will be continued at this point. If a different type of steam shovel is used, it is possible that the pit will be extended still farther East towards the Lucy shaft.