

OH-11 Index

CORSI, Joe (interview conducted 3/11/82)

Indexer: Faye Oja

Indexed May 12, 1983

Summary: Mostly about Joe Corsi's personal experiences when he came to America from Italy.

Counter	Subject
000-007	Talking about playing baseball when he was a kid.
007-011	Prejudicisms against Italians
011-015	Games Italians played
015-026	Occupations of the Italians
026-033	Talking about leaving mines
033-043	Why his father choose Boston to settle
043-047	Conditions on the boat when they came from Italy
047-052	Getting through immigration
052-059	Talking about getting their names changed
059-065	Mother could not read or write
065-070	Talking about starting school
070-092	Talking about his first job
092-104	Younger brother in school
104-111	Electricity, kerosene
111-119	In door plumbing
119-156	Italians owning cars
156-211	Getting married during the war
211-244	How many children he had, ages of them
244-280	Talking about musicians, bands
280-290	Famous Italians from this area
290-363	Talking about mining
363-411	Before he went to the army - and after

Page 2
OH-11 Index
Corsi, Joe

Counter	Subject
411-482	Talking about working conditions in Ford plant
482-541	Talking about getting other jobs.
541-565	Again talking about prejudices against the different nationalities. - If it was tough being Italian