

OH-35 Index

O'NEILL, Catherine Torreano and OPAL, Catherine Fausone (interview conducted in Calumet Michigan on 5/21/82)

Indexed by: Faye A. Oja

Indexed June 16, 1983

Summary: Discussing personal experiences of life in Calumet when Mrs. O'Neill was growing up.

Index	Subject
000-010	Where and when Mrs. O'Neill was born
010-020	What her parents names were and when they came from the old country
020-030	What her father did for a living in Franklin
030-035	What part of Italy her parents came from
035-046	What Mrs. O'Neill's father's family did in Italy
046-062	What her father did when he first came over
062-088	Discussing the tavern her father owned frequently visited
088-097	Discussing her brothers and sisters
097-109	Speaking Italian in her family
109-127	Discussing her sister that sings and the other members in the family that were musical
127-139	Mrs. O'Neill playing the piano at dances and in the orchestra
139-145	Discussing her father's feeling about education
145-156	Discussing the 12-room house
156-164	Discussing her father taking over the tavern
164-183	The occupations of her brother and sisters
183-202	Discussing her different jobs
202-220	Discussing the Italian foods they ate when she was a child
220-226	Discussing the Italian newspaper in Calumet
226-264	Discussing the Italian clubs and societies in Calumet
264-295	Talking about James Lisa and his wife
295-314	Talking about prominent Italians in the Laurium, Calumet area

Index	Subject
314-325	Discussing the Italian immigration to that area
325-338	Her mother's reaction to coming over on the boat
338-351	Stories about immigrating, eating bananas
351-380	Talking about Doc's wife and the story of tear of joy
380-389	Talking about Mrs. O'Neills mother
389-435	Discussing the Italian Catholic church, St. Mary's
435-460	Discussing the Italian teaching books in the library
460-486	Taking baths at the library
486-518	Talking about the choir in town
518-565	Discussing playing the organ and piano and singing
565-623	Music being their entertainment when they were young
000-018*	Discussing the foods most Italians ate
018-050	How they made baked beans
050-055	The Italian remedy for colds
055-071	Discussing the family midwives
071-099	Discussing Louie and him receiving a medal he shouldn't have. Tinetti family
099-106	Talking about Italian farmers and
106-126	Making touma, a type of cheese
126-134	The animals Mrs. O'Neills family had
134-154	Discussing making polenta
154-169	Discussing big holidays when they were young
169-181	Discussing making salami
181-198	Discussing the immigrants going back to Italy for a visit
198-207	Did the Italians in the area move to different places

* Start second side at zero

Page 3

OH-35

O'NEILL, Catherine Torreano

Index

Subject

207-227	Discussing where the Italians were located in Calumet
227-253	Discussing the strike and what role the Italians played
253-279	How people react to the strike
279-287	Discussing prominent Italians in the U.P.
287-291	Talking the Knights of Romulus