

OH-41 Index

ROVANO, James (interview conducted 6/10/82 in Laurium, MI)

Indexed by: Faye A. Oja

Indexed June 2, 1983

Summary: James Rovano discusses the Italian life style in Laurium when he was a kid/

Index	Subject
000-014	Where he lived when he was a kid
014-025	Discribing the people that lived around him, mostly Italians
025-039	Starting school and not speaking english
039-057	Discussing his parents, his dad crossing the Atlantic seven times
057-066	When they moved to Calumet
066-079	Working in the mine (his father)
079-084	His father moving into carpentry work
084-100	When the depression came, what he did for a living
100-120	Discussing some land that his father owned
120-137	Discussing some Italian tales
137-160	Talking about the law that abolished alcohol
160-170	Discussing Italian habits in homes
170-185	The animals people owned and the central pasture
185-196	Making the food from the animals
196-211	Buying a pig to make sausage
211-230	Adding the wine to the pork
230-244	Having salami, potatoes, and other vegetables in the basement
244-278	Having soft coal in the basement, wood to heat the basement
278-295	Discussing the families Bat Quello
295-303	Bat Quello making the wine for the Christopher Columbus Society

Index	Subject
303-330	How the other nationalities felt about the Italian lifestyle
330-346	Discussing the societies in Calumet
346-373	Talking about the history of new Italian Mutual Benefit Society
373-443	Discussing the ethnic grocery stores and how they catered to the people
443-478	Discussing the language barrier
478-507	Having Italian speaking masses
507-595	The people coming from the same village in Italy
595-000*	Socializing with the other people in the town
000-018	Relatives all being in the same town
018-028	Discussing tools used in the vineyards
028-070	Every household having fausettes
070-112	Discussing the Italian stories his mother told when he was young
112-156	Another fantasy his parents told him when he was young
156-194	Telling stories about relatives back in Italy
194-258	Telling a story about Piedmont and dividing property
258-292	Discussing other families in the area
292-311	Discussing the Quello family
311-338	Discussing other Italian's/ Coppels
338-351	Nothing
351-360	Discussing his information
360-410	Discussing the Italian dialect and trip to Italy

Page 3

OH-41

ROVANO, James

Index

Subject

410-441

Discussing communicating with his Italian uncle

441-450

Discussing his second trip to Italy

450-464

Talking about Italians moving to American then moving back to Italy