

OH-92

SARVELLO, Dominic (interview conducted in Ishpeming on 3/7/79)

Indexed by: Faye A. Oja

Indexed July 21, 1983

Summary: Gives some background of life when he was young and first settled here.

Index	Subject
000-075	Talking about the post-depression years also talking about some kind of job someone wouldn't give.
075-089	Discussing how he obtained the building his bar was in.
089-095	When he started the tavern
095-109	Discussing the beginning of businesses during Roosevelt's time
109-134	The meals he served in the tavern
134-144	Discussing the miners payday and the tavern cashing their checks
144-173	Discussing some of the relatives and their occupations
173-179	What his daughters did
179-186	Who he hired to work in this tavern
186-205	Talking about his kids and running his business
205-225	Who his customers were
225-263	Talking about his experience in the mines
263-367	Bad scenes he saw in the mine
367-423	Discussing the boarding houses the miners lived in
423-490	Discussing a fight he had with his brother-in-law at the tavern
490-616	Discussing who carried guns in the old days - continuing his story
000-085	Discussing the men coming to Ishpeming from Chicago to collect money
085-161	The group of men who wanted to start a protection group
161-237	Discussing the Cosacks working at the mine

Page 2
OH-92
SARVELLO, Dominic

Index	Subject
237-271	Discussing getting a loan to open his tavern
271-297	Discussing his experience with night school
297-319	What the hardest thing for his to get used to in the U.S.
319-400	What they raised on the ranches and about the people who ran them
400-462	Talking about some people and wine, and gun fights
462-494	I think he's talking about some relatives
494-521	His involvement in WWI
521-575	Discussing where his children were born and who delivered them
575-628	Discussing attitudes of people in Italy