

no info on Italians - all on Depression

OH-78 Index

SCALI, Joseph (interview conducted in 1977 at Sault St. Marie, MI)

Indexed by: Faye A. Oja

Indexed May 24, 1983

Summary: Joseph Scali discusses what his life was like during the depression.

Index	Subject
000-007	Where he lived during the depression
007-020	What he did during the the depression
020-032	Where he worked after the depression and what the wages were.
032-042	When he was unemployed
042-053	The prices of objects when he was young
053-070	What they did for recreation
070-076	Talking about cars and planes
076- 095	Belongings he had at home
095-103	Discussing sleeping arrangements when he was young
103-115	Discussing what they used for wood for heat
115-132	Discussing deaths during the depression
132-140	Discussing meal tickets
140-154	Riding the rods
154-173	Discussing his education
173-178	Talking about stocks and bonds
178-216	Discussing relief during the depression
216-225	His father having to pay a fine for cutting hair
225-230	Discussing his mining job
230-269	Talking about joining the military
269-293	Conditions of the city during the post-depression
293-315	Talking about families doubling up
315-327	Talking about gardens
327-362	Talking about games the played during the depression