

OH-31 Index

TACCOLINI, Frank (interview conducted in Negaunee, MI 5/27/82)

Indexed by: Faye A. Oja

Indexed June 9, 1983

Summary:

Index	Subject
000-010	Where in Italy he came from
010-023	Where his father first came to in U.S. and what he did
023-038	When they came to Quinn and his father farming
038-064	The mines that Frank worked at
064-069	During the depression working for the county
069-075	Starting to work in the Negaunee mines
075-105	His duties in the mine
105-119	What mining was like
119-153	The town in Italy he came from and what it was like
153-173	Describing the different cultures and how it effected him when he came over
173-178	Talking about his father
178-184	Some of the customs they kept from Italy
184-228	Traditional foods they still eat
228-245	Talking about his nephew
245-267	Discussing some lodges and the Italian traditions they kept up.
267-282	Discussing the building they held the dances in
282-291	When the lodge shut down
291-330	Other societies (La Bardavenata)
330-345	Discussing wine making
345-438	Making sausage
438-472	Italians helping each other, years ago
472-507	The Italian newspapers they received

Index

Subject

507-547	The different occupations the Italians held in Negaunee
547-612	The chicory he grows in his gardern, some facts about it
000-037*	Remedies that Italians use to heal illnesses
037-050	Discussing the Italians nature
050-062	Discussing the Italians men going to church
062-098	Where the Italian families settled
098-103	When the Italians in that area started to decline
103-118	Italian taverns and stores
118-135	What the sausage was like in the Italian store
135-153	Discussing the stores and entertainment places the Italians owned
153-178	Discussing making moonshine during prohibition
178-194	Discussing the "red light district" during prohibition
194-225	When he was young, was there a big Italian immigration
225-246	Discussing the Markettys
246-264	The name of the Italian store in town
264-271	Discussing old timers