

The Board of Control of Northern Michigan University has weighed all factors presented to it by faculty and administration regarding its decision to terminate the services of Dr. Robert McClellan.

The Board is mindful of the sincerity and intensity of convictions which have been expressed to it. It is equally aware of the need, at all times, for preserving the integrity of its administrative powers.

In the best interests of all concerned, the Board reaffirms its decision to terminate Dr. Robert McClellan's association with Northern Michigan University at the close of this academic year.
