Activities Listed By YAF For Honor America Week

Supporting the American Legion Veterans of Foreign Wars, and veterans organizations, across the country, members of the Young Americans for Freedom (YAF) are promoting the week of Nov. 10-16 as Honor America Week. YAF, a conservative national student group, urges the "Silent American Majority" to make itself heard through active participation in support of America.

Activities suggested by YAF includes flying the flag, wearing red, white and blue armbands, driving with headlights on in the daytime, and signing petitions in support of the President.

On Tuesday, the public is invited to participate in the Veterans Day ceremonies at 10:30 a.m. next to the chamber of commerce building and to support a Vietnam Veterans Day parade in the city. The parade will be shown at 11:30 a.m. in the Brook Room of University Center.

Debate Scheduled. At 4 p.m. a debate on the Vietnam War will be held in the Brook Room. Supporting the President's position will be Col. James Sessler, head of the ROTC Department, and Dr. Miodrag Georgevich, chairman of the political sciences department.

Dr. Robert McClellan, assistant professor in history, and Dr. John Waterman Jr., assistant professor of English, will present the opposition viewpoint.
