

80 Persons Participate In Moratorium March Here

Approximately 80 persons participated in a peace march held Wednesday night in Marquette. These persons, marching in pairs, are shown on North Third St. The march originated on the campus of Northern Michigan University and included part of the north section of the city. — (Mining Journal photo)

Five Fined, One Jailed In Munising

MUNISING — One person was convicted of a charge of impaired driving and he and four others paid $380 in fines and costs assessed by Judge Charles H. Stark in Alger District Court. One of the five, Lawrence T. Kassha, Marinette, Wis., was committed to Alger County jail for three days for driving while his license was revoked. He and Sunday night, and a 2:30 p.m. matinee also will be presented. All seats are general ad.

also paid $60. Joseph E. Geerts, Chatham, paid $60 and his operator's license was revoked after he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Edward F. Fedrizzo, Caspian, was assessed $100 on a charge of impaired driving, to which he pleaded guilty after Alger Prosecutor William Werner reduced the charge from driving under the influence of intoxicants.

The jury conviction came in the case of Runard O. Esterholm, Munising, who was found guilty of a charge of impaired driving. Besides paying $100, he was placed on 90 days' probation. John C. McNally, Munising, paid $60. He was charged with

TOMBSTONE SIDEWALKS

Some of the sidewalks in the holy city of Meshed, Iran made of tombstones. The slabs mark the site of an ancient Moslem cemetery which the graves were removed long ago.

FISH FR

Each Friday Night
Including Shoestrings, C
Slaw, Rolls and Butter
Lake Trout Available

LAKESIDE INN

M-28 at Sand River
Also Serving Lunches
Short Orders, Steaks
Chicken
LIQUOR BEER WI