Alleged Violation Discrimination in Education, Housing and Employment.

Race Color Religion Nat'l. Origin Ancestry Age Sex

Date of Alleged Violation October 21, 1969 and continuing.

Facts of Alleged Violation:

I, Patrick Williams, on behalf of the Black Student Association, allege that Northern Michigan University discriminates against me and other black students in the following manner:

- 1. The University student discipline procedures are applied in a discriminatory fashion. Black students are disciplined more often and more severely.

In December, 1969, Mr. Charles Griffiths, a black student who was accused of having a female in his dormitory room was suspended from school, alleges that his suspension was based on race.

- 2. Black students allege that some classes are conducted in a discriminatory manner.

Linda Martin, Jean Stewart, and Randy Hamilton, all of whom are black students, allege discrimination in the conduct of Mr. Sindwani's sociology class.

- 3. Black students allege that the University does not fulfill its responsibility to insure that racial discrimination does not occur when black students apply for approved off-campus housing.

Diane Elliot and Charles Griffiths, black students, allege they were discriminated against when they applied for university-approved off-campus housing.

I have not filed a grievance nor commenced any action, civil or criminal, based upon the facts set forth above, except:
