2,200 Students Attend Meeting In Protest Over Dismissal Of McClellan

A report of Northern Michigan University's student disturbance on Monday, was made public in The Daily Miner, indicating that the meeting was attended by 2,200 students. The report stated that the meeting was held in protest against the removal of two professors from the university's faculty and the proposed changes in the university's academic programs. The meeting was organized by the student group "Northern Michigan University Student Federation," which was founded in the fall of 1968. The group was formed to represent the interests of students at the university, and it has been active in numerous protests and demonstrations in the past.

16-Point Program

A program which is to be presented to the faculty of the university, consists of 16 points which outline the demands of the student body. The program was presented at a meeting of the students on Monday evening. The program consists of the following points:

1. The establishment of a student senate
2. The creation of a student government association
3. The adoption of a code of conduct for students
4. The establishment of a student council
5. The establishment of a student newspaper
6. The establishment of a student radio station
7. The establishment of a student television station
8. The establishment of a student literary magazine
9. The establishment of a student art and music society
10. The establishment of a student athletic association
11. The establishment of a student social association
12. The establishment of a student service association
13. The establishment of a student research association
14. The establishment of a student scholarship association
15. The establishment of a student veterans association
16. The establishment of a student union

Night-Long Demonstration

A demonstration is planned for Monday evening, which is to be held on the university campus. The demonstration is to be led by the student group "Northern Michigan University Student Federation," and it is expected to attract a large number of students.

Accord Near

An accord near the end of the meeting was reached on Monday evening. The accord was reached after a long and heated discussion, and it is expected to have a positive impact on the university's future.

ISHIPIMING CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The council met on Monday evening, and it approved a number of resolutions and ordinances. The council also discussed a number of issues, including the budget, the city's financial situation, and the future of the city.

Notice for Sealed Bids

Sealed bids will be received by the City Clerk at the City Building, at 2 p.m., on Thursday, September 30, for the following projects:

1. The construction of a new city hall
2. The renovation of the old city hall
3. The construction of a new parking garage
4. The renovation of the old parking garage

FALL FESTIVAL AND HARVEST DINNER

The city will host a fall festival and harvest dinner on Saturday, October 1, at the city park. The festival will feature live music, food, and games, and it is expected to attract a large number of people.

ISHIPIMING CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The council met on Monday evening, and it approved a number of resolutions and ordinances. The council also discussed a number of issues, including the budget, the city's financial situation, and the future of the city.

Notice for Sealed Bids

Sealed bids will be received by the City Clerk at the City Building, at 2 p.m., on Thursday, September 30, for the following projects:

1. The construction of a new city hall
2. The renovation of the old city hall
3. The construction of a new parking garage
4. The renovation of the old parking garage

FALL FESTIVAL AND HARVEST DINNER

The city will host a fall festival and harvest dinner on Saturday, October 1, at the city park. The festival will feature live music, food, and games, and it is expected to attract a large number of people.