Roots of Civil Disorders
The United States Senate held a series of hearings over the past week in an attempt to determine the cause of the growing discontent among the people of the country. The hearings were held to consider the effect of labor-management relations and the causes of the present economic crisis.

Both businesses and workers agreed that while American industry is in a white race for profits, and that the United States is trending strongly toward development as a nation with two

Pembina Perambulator

A normally perambulating meeting of the Hanover School was held on Thursday afternoon. The meeting was attended by a large number of interested participants. The main topic of the meeting was the need for a resolution of the financial difficulties faced by the school.

This was declared a tops in the future planning. One must note the rate and style with which the school is progressing. The speaker emphasized the need for a resolution of the financial difficulties faced by the school.

Civil conduct for a community swimming pool.

The plans for the construction of a community swimming pool in the Hanover area were presented to the town council. The plans were approved by the council, and work for the construction will be started immediately.

The Farm House Cooperative was formed to provide a service for farmers in the area. The cooperative will be responsible for the construction of a community swimming pool.

Robert J. Bower, president of the Lake Superior Water Co., presented the plans for the pool to the town council. The council approved the plans, and work for the construction will be started immediately.

Academic Freedom

Dear Sir:

The recent controversy over the role of the university in society has raised important questions about the nature of academic freedom. In my opinion, academic freedom is a fundamental right of scholars and students, and it is essential for the maintenance of a free society.
