U.P. Guards To Take Part In Counter-Demonstration

Members of all Upper Peninsula National Guard units will be represented at the counter-demonstration against the Vietnam war on Saturday, according to Lt. Col. Richard L. Pabois, 167th Engineer Battalion, Great Lakes, who is in charge of the Unit of the National Guard Unit. The demonstration will be held in the City Park and will feature the participation of various groups and organizations.