The new year will mark the beginning of the second phase of construction at Bay Cliff Health Camp with facilities that are vital to the institution if it is to continue serving the handicapped children of the Upper Peninsula.

Located in the Village of Bay Bay in northern Marquette County, Bay Cliff was founded in 1934 and has served children with physical handicaps every summer since then. Over the intervening years nearly 6,000 children with almost every conceivable type of physical handicap and from every county in the Upper Peninsula who have never received therapy at Bay Cliff. The camp is a nonprofit, non-denominational institution. Its operation is financed by the subscriptions of its patrons and voluntary contributions from its friends and alumni.

When it was first opened as a care center for undernourished children, the camp accommodated 107 youngsters. By 1939, it was expanded to 300 beds, and since then, it has been able to serve 200 children during each summer camping period.

The expanded facilities were made possible through the first phase of the construction program, which began in 1962 and was completed in 1969.

Andrew Tully:

Troop Withdrawal Policy

WASHINGTON — We are in the midst of the disarming of the American military. Our national leadership, exemplified by the White House, is determined to reduce our military capacity and to forestall a new arms race. In this context, the withdrawal of troops from Vietnam is a logical and necessary step.

The so-called “Hanoi Hilton” has closed, and the Saigon Hilton is about to be vacated. The Viet Cong’s rural areas are under heavy pressure, and the North Vietnamese Army is on the verge of collapse. The United States has signified its willingness to negotiate a peace settlement, and we are in the process of withdrawing our forces from Vietnam.

The “real” military, they declare, is the domestic front. The “real” money is the “real” issue. The “real” battle is being fought by the “real” people on the “real” front. The “real” goal is to create a viable, democratic, and peaceful society in Vietnam.
